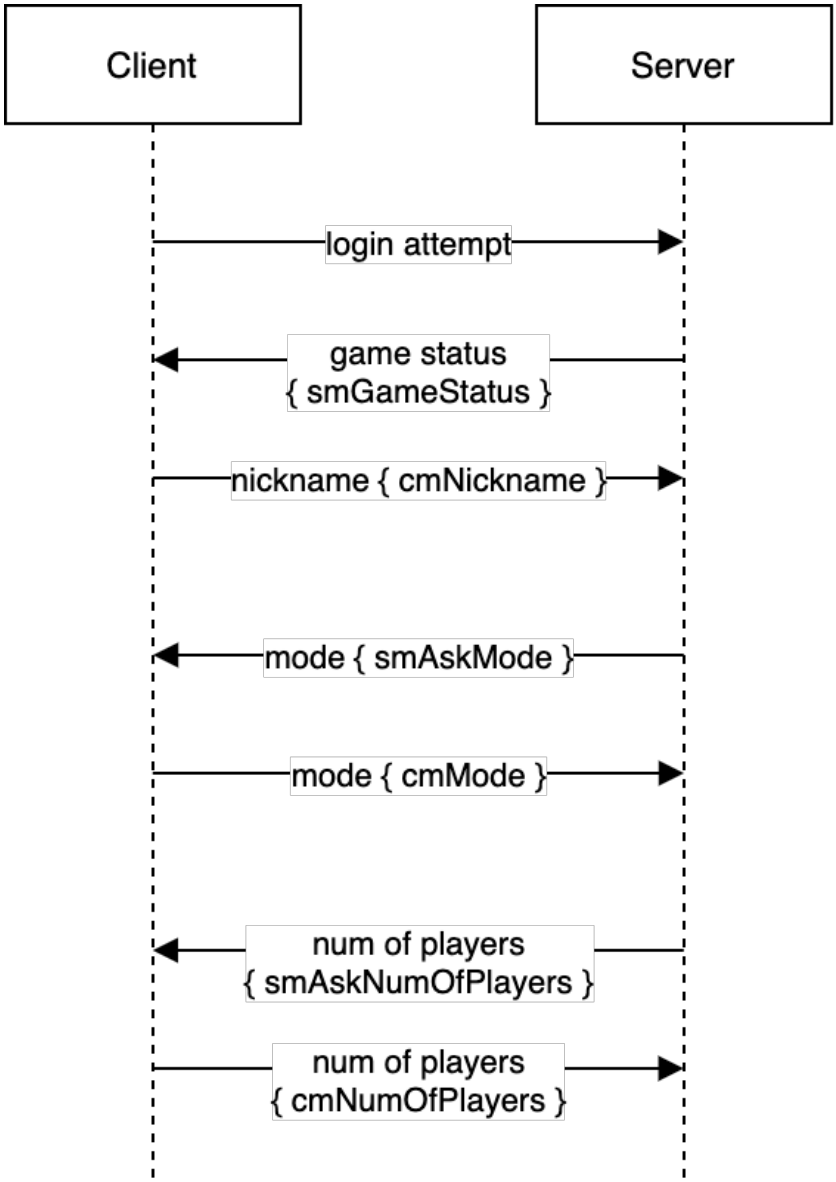
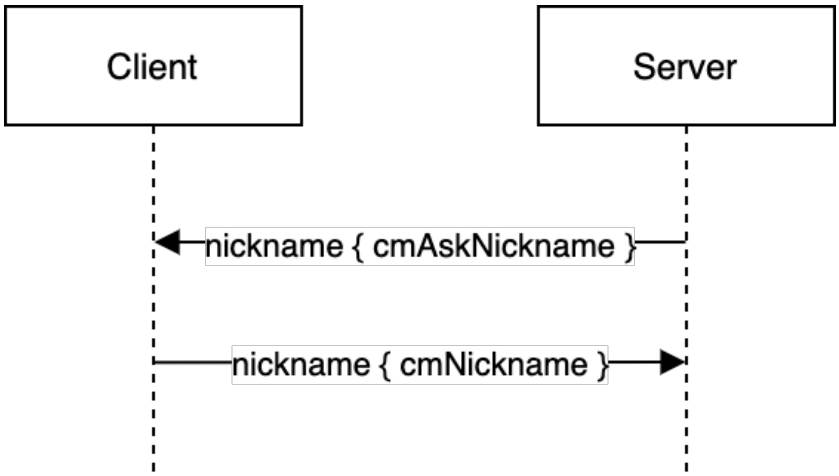
Set game

The server will set up the game whit the client that made the first connection. It will ask to the first player his nickname, the mode and the number of players.



Join game

After the set up of the game, the server ask him his nickname sending him the nicknames already taken, the number of player needed for that match and the match's mode.

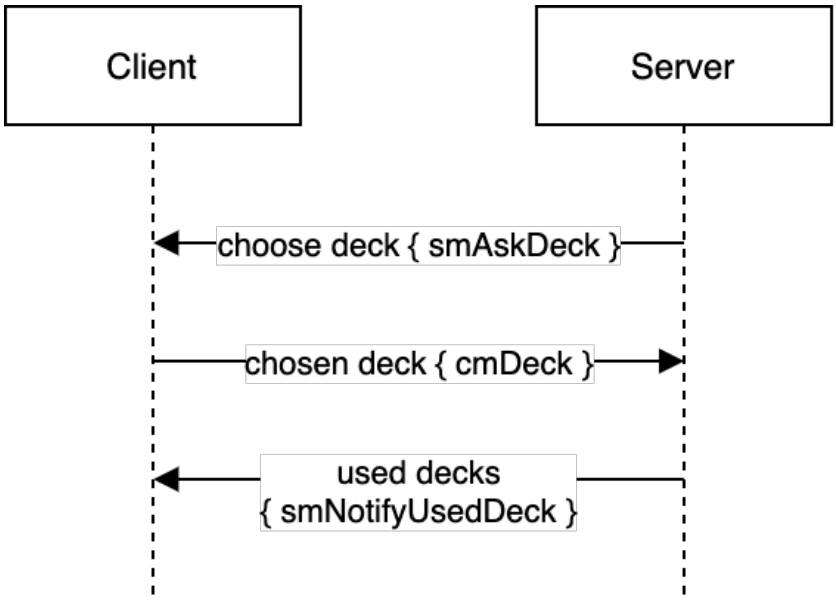


Waiting players

The players in the game wait until the number of players is not reached. Every time a new player join the game, the server notifies the client with a message.

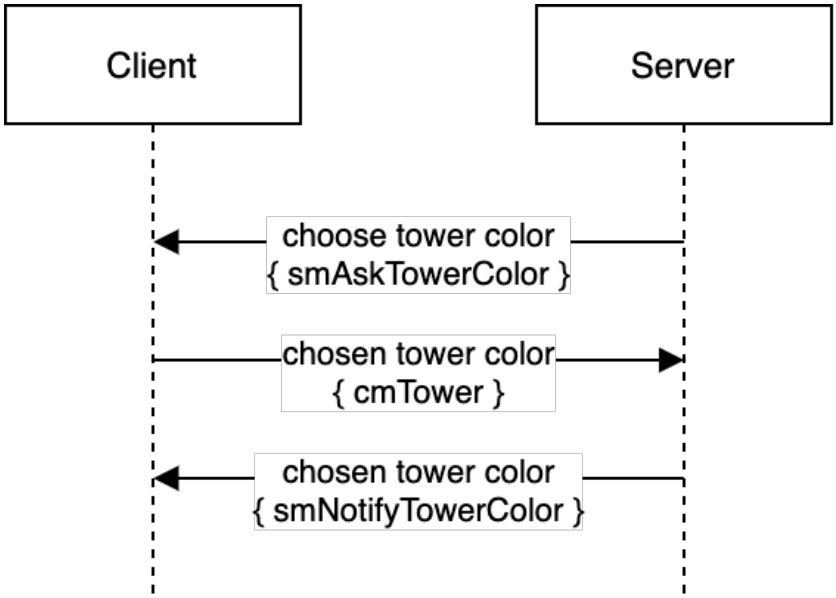
Choose deck

The server ask to each client to select a deck sending its the available ones.



Choose tower

The server ask to each client the tower's color sending its the available ones.

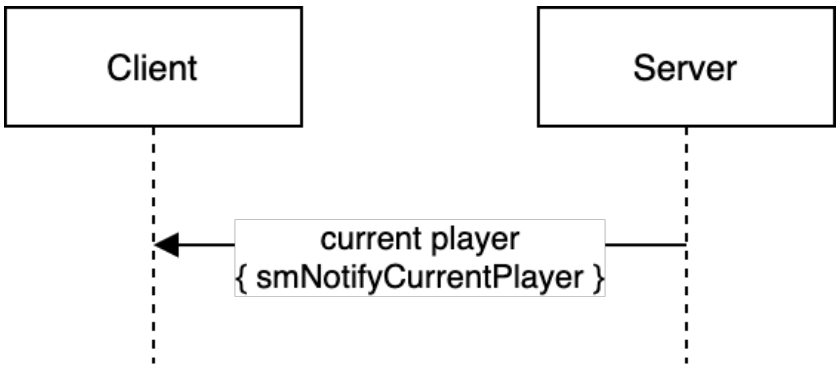


Planning phase

- fill cloud;
- choose support card.

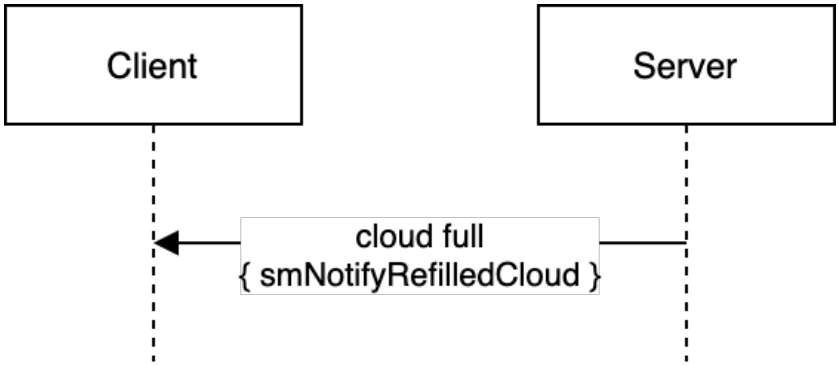
Current player

The server tell to the client that it's the current player.



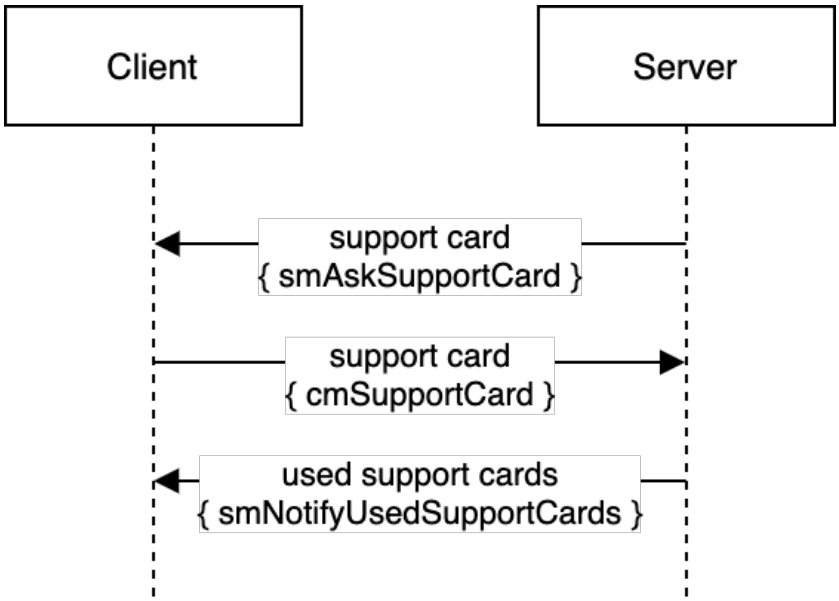
Fill cloud

The server draw three students from the bag and put them on each cloud.



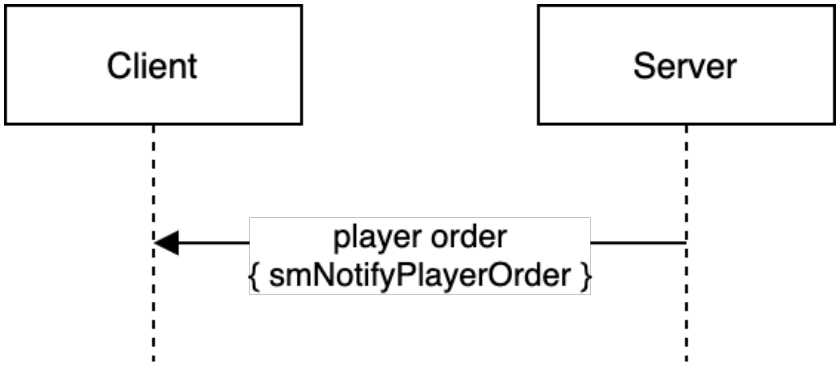
Choose support card

The server ask to each client to select the support card.
Then the server notify to the other clients connected to the game the used support card.



Player order

The server notify to the clients the player order.



Action phase

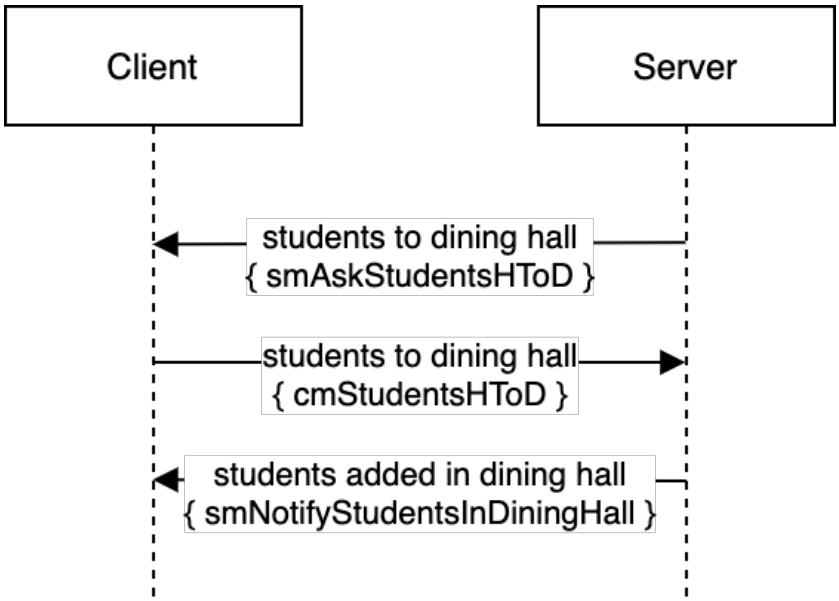
- Students movements;
- move mother nature;
- choose cloud;
- activate character card.

Current player

Like the one described before.

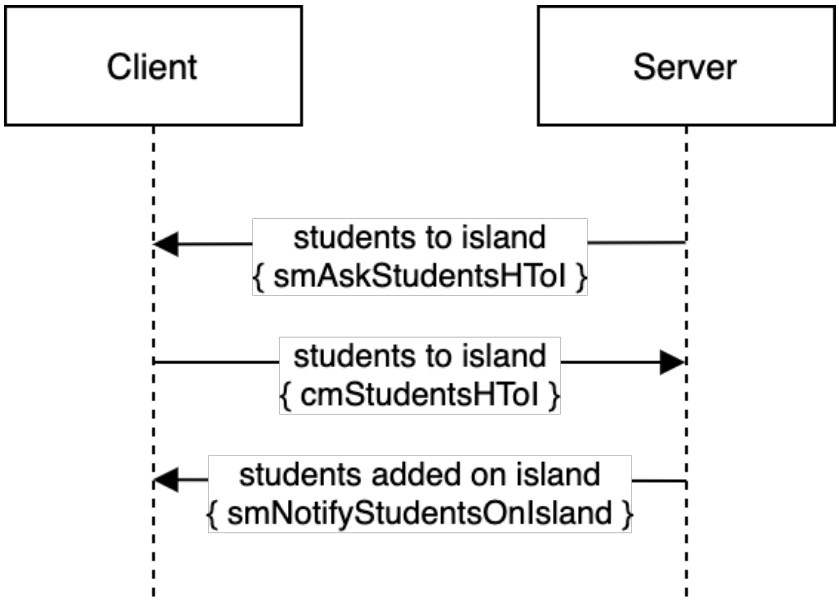
Students to dining hall

The server ask to the client which students wants to move from the hall to the dining hall.



Students to island

The server ask to the client which students wants to move from the hall to the island.

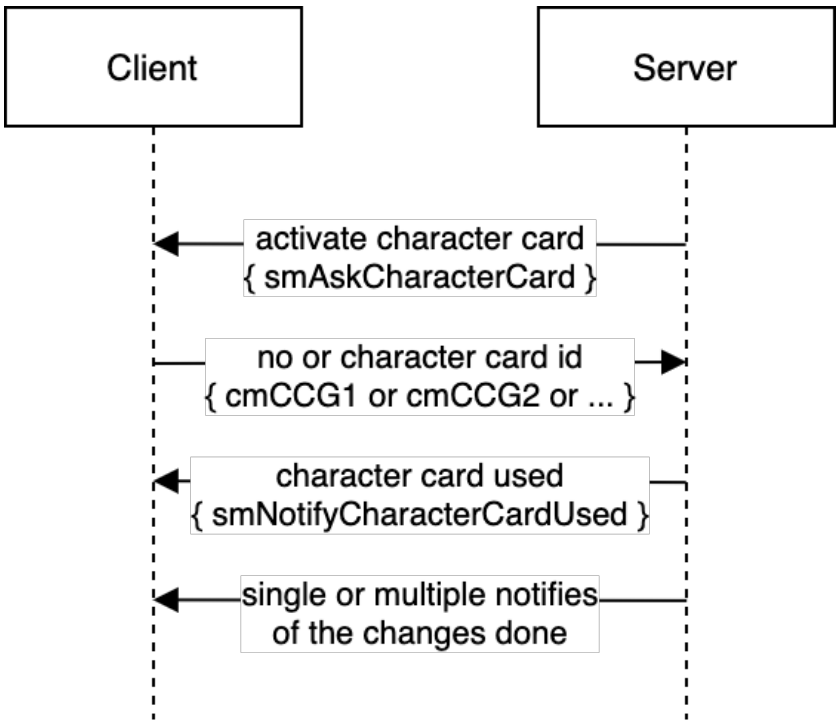


Activate character card

(Only in expert mode)

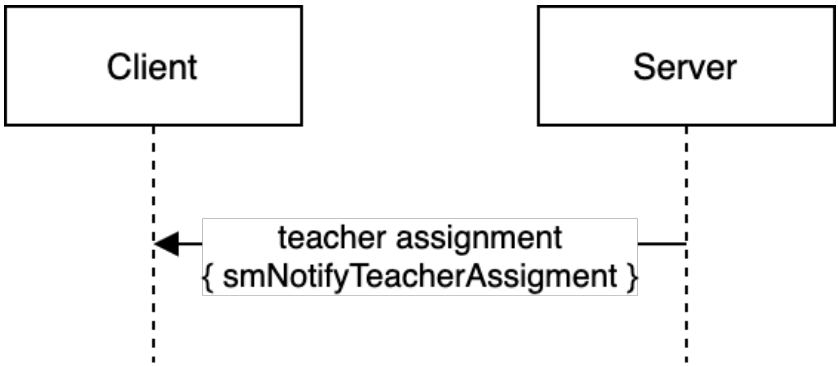
The server ask to the client if it want to activate a character card. If yes, the client choose one of available and notify the client with which one is used.

After the effect make the changes and the server notify with the changes done.



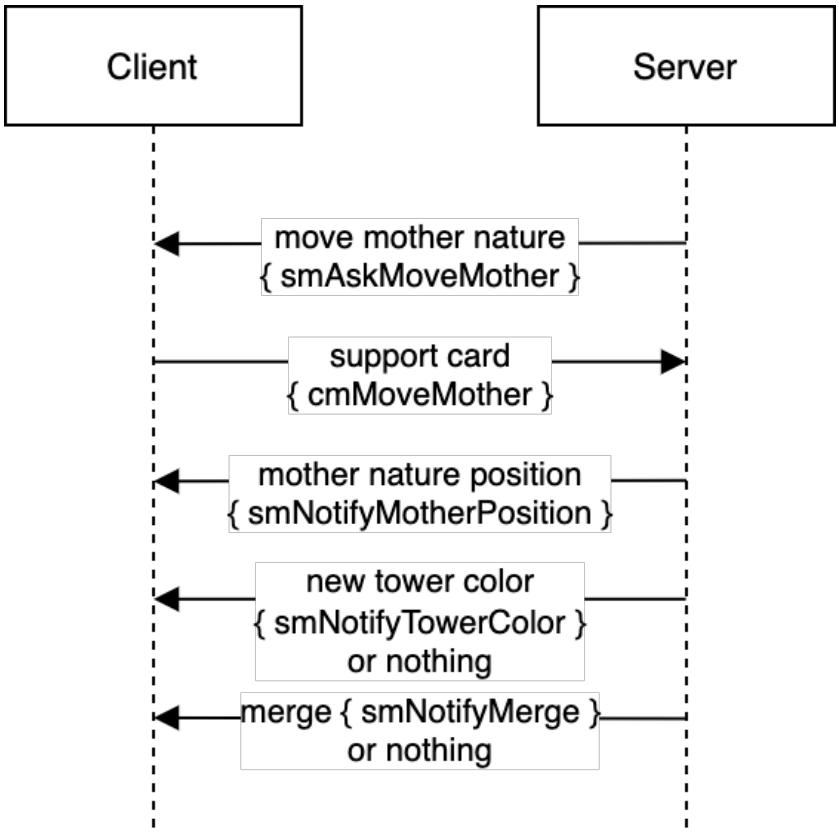
Teacher assignment

If the current client has more students of a color in the dining hall, it will be notify from the server that a teacher is assign to its.



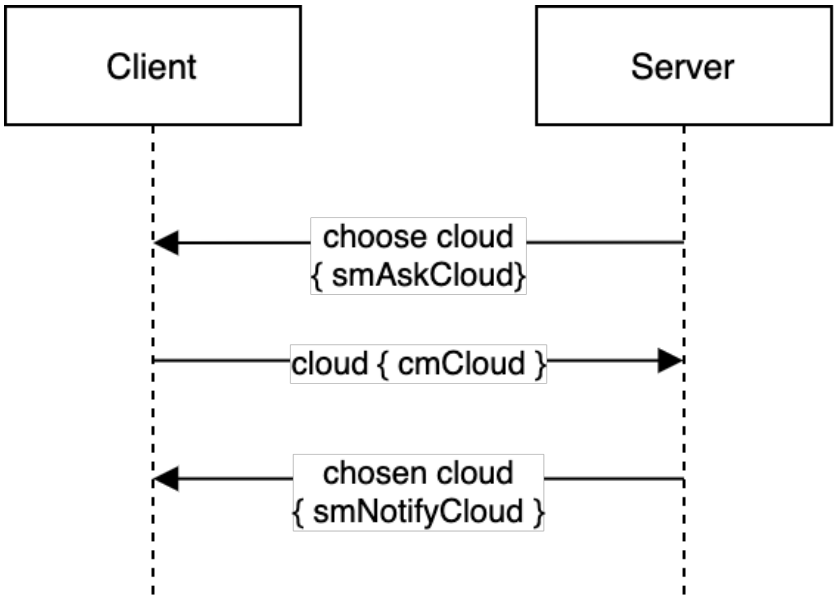
Move mother nature

The server ask to move mother nature to the client.
Then notify each client of the new position of mother nature, if on the island where mother nature went the tower change and if there's a merge.



Choose cloud

If there's more than a cloud with students on it, the server ask to the client to choose one to take all the students from.



Planning phase

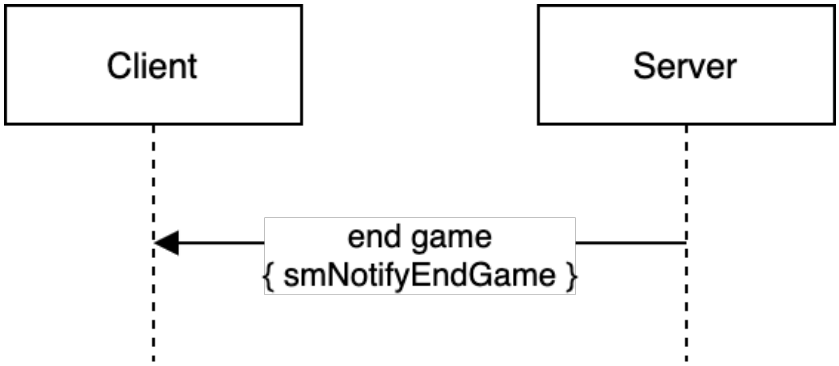
Then the restart with the planning phase.

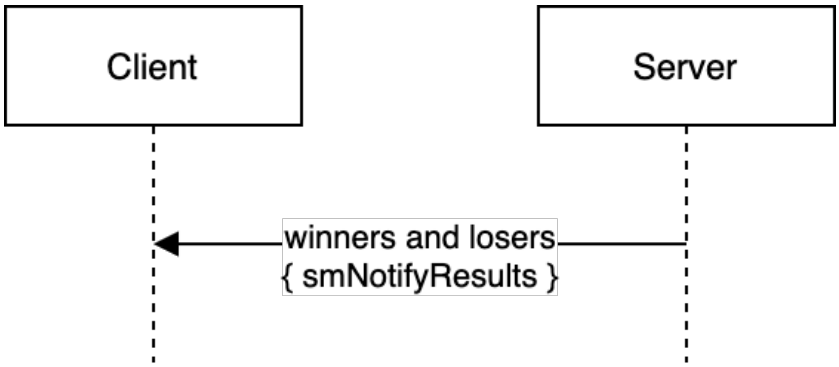
Action phase

When the planning phase is done, the action phase restart.

End game

The planning phase and the action phase are repeated until one of the end conditions is reached. The server notify which one condition is reached and if the game terminate immediately or at the end of the turn.



Game results


After the end of the game, the server notify the clients with a message that communicates who has won and who has lost.